

COURSE OUTLINE

Working At Heights

PURPOSE

Learners will be enabled to implement and manage a SHE management system in a place of work.

Beginner:
2 days

Refresher:
1 day

COURSE CONTENT

People credited with this unit standard will be able to describe the requirements with regards to working at heights. The competency includes knowledge and understanding of the requirements applicable to:

- Performing work in elevated positions.
- The method used to conduct work in elevated positions is explained.
- Inspecting, caring for and storing fall arrest equipment effectively.
- The need to ensure correct and meticulous record keeping is explained.
- The safety, health and environmental principles regarding the safe construction and maintenance of working platforms, ladders, scaffolds and walkways in elevated positions.
- The procedure required to report in terms of identified deviation from standards is described.
- The need to ensure correct record keeping is explained
- The procedure for following up identified deviations is described.

Pre-requisites

- Valid Medical – Evaluation for Working At Heights to included as part of Medical Screening
- Copy of learners Id
- Copy of expired Working at Heights certificate – Refresher course only
- Communication skills at NQF L 02
- Mathematical Literacy at NQF L 02